Harassment & Bullying

Encourage a positive, productive work environment.

Learning Manager's Harassment & Bullying is a shorter course created from a topic covered in our Equal Employment Opportunity course, and designed to complement our Anti-discrimination course.

Learners are taught the difference between harassment and bullying, about the detrimental effects they can have on people and productivity, the legal and financial consequences, and about their rights and obligations.

This shorter course is a great way of maximising your workers' time by enabling them to focus purely on an essential topic. It's completed online at the learner's convenience, with an assessment and results given at the end of the course. Other features include a glossary of key terms, a help menu, and a bookmark function.

What's covered

- ◆ Defining harassment & bullying
- ◆ Effects of harassment & bullying
- ◆ EEO laws
- ◆ Acceptable behaviour
- ◆ Responsibilities & liabilities
- ◆ Reporting incidents
