Work Health & Safety – Education

Educate your workers about their rights and responsibilities.

Learning Manager’s Work Health & Safety – Education course explains the rights and responsibilities of workers and employers in practical terms and educates schools and colleges about how to manage hazards and risks that commonly occur in the education environment.

The course helps to provide all levels of workers, including volunteers, with a solid understanding of the importance of WHS. It also looks at how to prevent workplace incidents at your school and how to prepare for emergencies should they occur.

The course has six modules that are completed online at the learner’s convenience, with assessments and results given at the end of each module.

What’s covered:

- ◆ What is WHS?
- ◆ Identifying & dealing with common hazards in schools & colleges
- ◆ Your working environment
- ◆ Managing hazardous manual tasks
- ◆ Preventing workplace incidents
- ◆ Preparing for emergencies

Empower your workers to protect themselves and others. Make Learning Manager’s Work Health & Safety – Education part of your risk management strategy.
